

Us Nerds

Not many of you have heard that's it is cool to be a nerd.
Once an outsider,
today a writer.

Don't mind the looks,
their nose is in books.
They study and don't cheat,
others gave up, decided to quit.

They love the language,
they love to teach,
they have high goals
they will soon reach.

They created a group
Of help and support,
they study together-
-it's their favorite sport.
